HORSESHOE CLUB NAMES OFFICERS

VOLNEY PHILP IS CHOSEN AS PRESIDENT AND APPOINTS GROUND'S DIRECTORS

MEMBERSHIP GROWS

LIST MORE THAN DOUBLES IN YEAR; CONTEST BETWEEN HOME TEAMS PLANNED

Last Saturday afternoon the Glendale Horseshoe and Tourist club held its annual election, and Volney Philp was chosen president; Thomas Hutchinson, vice-president; W. H. Nicoles, secretary-treasurer. This is the fifth consecutive term for the latter. He was presented with a handsome pipe and a good supply of smoking tobacco. President Philp appointed the following directors for the horseshoe grounds: J. L. Denney, J. D. Porter and C. E. Higley; for the croquet courts, W. A. Jenkins, Wallace Robinson, Samuel Dick.

The club is keeping pace with Glendale's growth. A year ago the membership was forty-one and now it is eighty-nine. About fifteen of these are winter tourists. The club welcomes all such who take an interest in the games.

The greatest need of the organization today is a clubhouse for indoor games, such as checkers, chess and dominoes.

A contest has been arranged between two teams of home players, ten men on a side, the Denney Pirates vs. the Porter Outlaws. Fifty games will be played.

MISS WOOD BRIDE

MARRIED TO MILTON MORGAN AT HOME OF HER PARENTS ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

Milton E. Morgan and Miss Bessie Wood were united in marriage New Year's eve at the home of the bride's parents, 3703 Seneca street. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend O. P. Rider, pastor of Tropico Presbyterian church.

The house was adorned for the happy occasion with a profusion of flowers and ferns. The bride was charming in a gown of white georgette crepe with trimmings of white satin and rosebuds. She was attended by her sister, Miss Harriet Wood.

Wm. Morgan, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Guests were relatives of the bride and groom.

After the ceremony, the guests extended felicitations and good wishes and then an elegrantly appointed wedding supper was served.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Morgan are well known in Glendale and have many friends here who wish them happiness and success. Mr. Morgan has lived here for the past fifteen years, and his bride has been a resident here for six years. Beautiful presents received from relatives and many friends testify to the esteem in which these young people are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will be at home to their friends at 724 South Louise street.

TAKE OUT PERMITS

NEW YEAR STARTS OUT WITH BUILDING APPLICATIONS FOR NEW RESIDENCES

That Glendale is still in need of more residences is evidenced by the fact that people who have been building more or less in the past few months are keeping it up. Yesterday the wife of W. S. Caldwell, a well-known contractor who has built and sold several beautiful bungalows during the past year, took out a permit for a 5-room residence and a garage at 410 West Harvard, to cost $3,500; Mrs. Ann Mason Page, who recently had a four-room bungalow erected at 404 Acacia avenue, took out two permits, one for a four-room residence at 412 East Acacia and the other for two rooms and a garage at 414, to cost, respectively, $1,500 and $1,000. Geo. Larkin secured a permit to erect an aviary at 1417 South Brand boulevard, to cost $400, and Borthick and Daniels one for a garage at 226 South Brand.

George M. Spears has moved his Little Photo Shop from 110A East Broadway to 219 East Broadway, where he occupies the west side of Stoddard & Kranz's real estate office.

Mrs. Nora Dungan Is Severely Burned By Gas Stove's Flames

Mrs. Nora Dungan of 329 East Lomita avenue was very severely burned Monday morning. She turned on the gas in the oven of her stove but forgot to light it, apparently, for when she later opened the oven door, the escaping gas ignited from a jet that was burning on top of the stove. There was an explosion and she was hurried backward, with a badly burned face and neck.

A doctor was hastily summoned by a neighbor and it was found that though her burns were serious she will suffer only a temporary inconvenience.

The report of Judge F. H. Lowe, city recorder, for the month of December, shows that during the month just ended the greatest number of cases were heard and, too, the greatest amount of fines was secured.

CARD CLUB MEETS

MRS. C. H. THOMPSON HOSTESS TO MEMBERS; DECORATIONS AND FAVORS CLEVER

Mrs. C. H. Thompson, 348 Milford street, entertained the Milford Street Card club at a holiday party given at her home last Thursday. First prize at cards was won by Mrs. John Robert White.

Very clever decorations and favors had been arranged at the dining table by Mrs. Thompson. In the center was a large basket, which when opened resembled a large poinsettia, containing special favors tied with red ribbons which reached to each place. Tiny poinsettia bon bon baskets and walnuts tied with red ribbon which extended to place cards were also used. When the walnuts were opened each was found to contain a very tiny jointed doll.

A very delightful time was enjoyed by the following: Mesdames H. A. McPherson, J. H. Southard, W. N. Rathbun, Reed Heustis, S. C. Leppelman, H. G. Hosford, Vinton, John Robert White, H. V. Brummel, H. B. Fletcher, Strain and C. H. Thompson.

BUILDING PERMITS

DECEMBER TOTAL IS $150,746 AND TOTAL FOR YEAR IS EXACTLY $3,136,664

Our report of building permits for December and for the year 1920, in last Friday's issue, was up to noon of that day, only. Two more permits were issued in the afternoon, one to M. R. Lowe, for a three-room residence at 1011 East Acacia avenue, $450; the other to W. O. Borthick, for a garage, at 811 South Maryland avenue, $125. This brought the December total to $150,746 and that for the year to $3,136,664.

Move to New Home

Ed Welch, one of the city mail carriers, moved his family Saturday into the new home he has just had completed for them at 505 Fairmont avenue.

CHURCH SESSION HEARS REPORTS

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN MEMBERS CLOSE UP BUSINESS AT END OF OLD YEAR

LARGE GAIN SHOWN

EXCELLENT RECORD IS MADE IN 1920; FINE PROGRAM IS GIVEN AT GATHERING

For seven or eight years past the one great meeting of the twelvemonth in Central Christian church has been the New Year's eve gathering, when all the members who could met in the church to close up the business of the year and watch the old year out.

Last Friday night's meeting of this character was the best and largest yet held. The attendance was greater and every feature showed a marked advance over previous years.

The first real business of the evening was the reading of the reports of pastor and officers. Large gains in membership and work done were shown and the financial reports were very pleasing, also. Last year's budget for all purposes was $3,750, but over $4,700 was raised and without a single appeal having to be made. The Bible school's offerings amounted to almost $800. The Ladies' Aid and the C. W. B. M. auxiliary had fine financial reports, also.

Next came the election of the officers who are to serve the spiritual and physical needs of the church for the ensuing year. This went off without the semblance of a contest.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the evening was the reading of the report of the Building committee, which included a recommendation that the congregation proceed at once to erect a $60,000 church building, a perspective view of the proposed structure being on view on the rostrum. The report of the committee was adopted without a dissenting vote.

Short Program Is Enjoyed

The roll call of members followed and then a short program was given, which included a solo by Mrs. Floyd Mercer, a reading by Miss Garnet Peters and a solo by Albert K. Lewis, a noted Hawaiian singer residing in Glendale, but who is away nearly all the time on personal engagements. He has a magnificent baritone voice. He was enthusiastically encored and gave in response an Italian love song. By request Rev. Cole then sang "Sweet Savior Mine," the audience joining in the chorus.

Mr. Cole then took charge of the meeting, which had previously been

DYNAMOS WINNER

LOCAL SQUAD TAKES BEST OF SCORE IN BATTLE WITH MONROVIA'S PLAYERS

The Presbyterian Dynamos basketball team chalked up another victory last Thursday by defeating the Monrovia squad on the high school floor by a score of 46 to 18. The Dynamos claim to have one of the best teams in southern California and the way they are annexing games seems to clinch the claim.

Great team work on the part of the Dynamos resulted in nine baskets for Max Price; "Brick" Wilde put up six; "Lefty" Herman hung up five and Russell Tummel placed three. Thomas McIver and Don Price played a good game and greatly helped to make possible the winning score.

SAD NEWS COMES

E. W. LYON IS SUMMONED TO POMONA AS RESULT OF HIS NIECE'S DEATH

E. W. Lyon of 214 North Louise was summoned to Pomona last Friday by news of the death of his niece, Mrs. Neva Ashbaugh, who had come out to California a few weeks ago with her mother, Mrs. Raleigh Guyer, of Dunlap, Ill., with the hope of regaining her health.

Girl Is Now Better

Little Lorna Forsyth, who was badly injured in a motor accident on December 23, has so far recovered that she is able to be moved from the Sanitarium to her home at 231 West Elk avenue.

John Robert White Proposes Change In State's Primary Law

Amendment of the primary law to prohibit a candidate at state primaries from running on any ticket other than that of the party with which he was affiliated thirty-five days before the election is to be urged by John Robert White of Glendale, assemblyman from the sixty-first district, in the state legislature now in session at Sacramento.

Dispatches from Sacramento state a revision of state tax laws may be attempted. If so, a reapportionment of districts for members of the state board of equalization will probably result.

Assemblyman White, at Sacramento, stated that the last census results showed that the present districts did not fairly represent the population of the state. New districts should be outlined, he stated.

Assemblyman White was named a member of the attache committee at the opening sessions of the legislature.

PROPOSES CLUB

SOCIAL ORGANIZATION OF ALL FORMER KANSAS CITY FOLK J. H. GARNSEY'S PLAN

J. H. Garnsey, who moved here from Kansas City, Mo., last spring, buying a beautiful home for himself and wife at 438 Vine and another for his daughter, Mrs. Warriner, next door, at 442, is perhaps the most thoroughly satisfied of all of Glendale's many hundreds of new residents. Yet he retains a feeling of love for the big city on the Kaw where he spent many happy years and where he accumulated a modest competence. He is desirous of forming a social club of former residents of Kansas City and he would be greatly pleased, he says, if all such would get into communication with him. He desires this, not only for the pleasure it may bring them in talking over events that have happened in the former home city, but for the purpose of consulting on measures of interest to Glendale and its advancement.

STUDY OF MACBETH

SHAKESPEARE SECTION MEETS AT MRS. O. E. VON OVEN'S RESIDENCE YESTERDAY

Mrs. O. E. Von Oven, 1315 Walnut street, was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club.

The session was devoted to a continuation of the study of "Macbeth." Plans were made for the open meeting to be held in the near future by this group of the club members. It is probable that the ladies of this section will attend in a body the "MacBeth" performance given by Robert Mantell.

After the meeting the ladies enjoyed a social time over the dainty collation served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. D. Yard, who was asked to pour.

Wed on New Year's

William E. Davenport, of Rhode Island, and Jennie M. Lamont, of Canada, were married on New Year's morning by Dr. C. M. Crist, at the home of A. D. Smith, 315 North Kenwood street.

The wedding was a quiet home ceremony, witnessed by only the immediate relatives. It is probable that Mr. and Mrs. Davenport will make their home in Glendale.

Newest Resident Here

Richard Lyon MacMullin is the very newest resident of Glendale; the newest in every sense, for at 6 o'clock this morning, "trailing clouds of glory, did he come from heaven, which is his home."

Richard wisely chose the abode of Mr. and Mrs. Smith MacMullin, Jr., 412 West Wilson avenue, for his home, shrewdly divining that they'd be proud to have for their first-born such a fine, lusty eight-pound boy as he is.

Richard and his mother are at the Glendale Sanitarium at present and his father, needless to say, is there part of the time, too. Mr. MacMullin says young Richard is "some boy."

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4—The official weather forecast: Cloudy tonight and Wednesday.

ADVENTIST YEAR RECORD IS MADE

ANNUAL REPORTS SHOW THAT GLENDALE CHURCH IS GROWING STEADILY

GIFTS TOTAL WELL

FINANCIAL STATEMENT DISPLAYS PROSPERITY; OFFICERS CHOSEN

Last Saturday marked the closing of a prosperous year at the Glendale Seventh-day Adventist church. In addition to the program which had been especially prepared for the New Year service, the secretary of the Sabbath school presented an interesting report of that department for the year 1920.

It was stated that the membership had grown from 323 at the beginning of the year to 423 and that the average attendance was 365. During the year 194 received perfect attendance cards for being present and on time every Sabbath and sixty-nine were both perfect in attendance and daily lesson study.

One of the most interesting features of the secretary's report was the large total of gifts to foreign missions during the year. The goal set by the General Conference was 25 cents per week for each member of the Sabbath school. The total received was $5,249.05, which is $3,068.88 more than the preceding year, or an average contribution of 27½ cents per week per member.

Fine Record for Year

The church members also gave $4,706.34 to foreign missions making the total gifts to missions from the whole church $9,955.39. In addition to this amount the church members paid $26,239.77 tithe for the support of evangelistic work in the home land. This is a gain over the previous year of $10,411.54. A large amount also was raised for local church work including a church school supporting five teachers. The church membership has increased from 314 at the beginning of the year to 500.

Dr. E. W. Alsberge, I. A. Ford, B. M. Emerson and Elder R. W. Munson entered upon their duties as elders of the church. Other officers assuming their positions at the New Year service were as follows: Jas. Howarth, chairman of the board of deacons; C. B. Towler and wife, clerk and assistant; Miss M. E. Learned, treasurer; Mrs. W. F. Martin, Sabbath school superintendent; Mrs. W. L. Bates, leader of the missionary volunteer society; Mrs. Lottie Alsberge, leader of the parent-teachers' association, and a large number of others.

Every indication points to a continuation of the past year's growth and the officers of the church are perplexed to know how to care for the rapidly increasing congregation. Some study has already been given to plans for enlargement.

CHARTER MEETING

BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS TO MEET ON THURSDAY NIGHT TO CONSIDER DRAFT

Bert P. Woodard, charman of the board of freeholders, announced today a meeting of the board will be held at 7:45 o'clock in the recorders' chambers at the city hall Thursday night for the purpose of considering the completed charter proposed for the city of Glendale.

A copy of the draft, as completed by the drafting committee, will be sent at once to each member of the board and, unless some members of the board have changes to suggest, the charter will be adopted and, later, an election called for the purpose of having the people pass upon it.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MARION, O., Jan. 4.—A stormy partisan fight early in the Harding administration over the proposed establishment of a centralized bank of the United States to replace the present federal reserve banks was intimated here today when it became known that republican leaders are laying plans to raise the issue soon.

Leaders have already sought the support of the president-elect and plan to make the creation of a central bank one of the achievements of the next administration if Harding will consent to make the fight.

They were astounded when Boggs crawled from the wreckage, practically without a scratch.

HOUSE PASSES BILL OVER WILSON'S VETO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Over President Wilson's veto the house today passed the resolution reviving the war finance corporation. The vote of the house gave the necessary two-thirds majority to overrule the president by a safe margin. CHURCH SESSION presided over most efficiently by John M. Ray, president of the official board. Stating that the church had been organized twelve years ago by Rev. J. W. Utter, Rev. Cole asked that all the charter members present stand. Nineteen arose and when the call was made for those who came in during Rev. Utter's five years' ministry to stand, twenty responded. It was found then that nineteen were present who came in under Rev. Frances' three years' ministry, eighteen who had joined under Rev. Cole previous to 1920, and forty-nine during the past year. These latter were called to the front and then there was a general handshaking after which refreshments of sandwiches, coffee and tea were served. It now being near midnight Rev. Cole made a short address, closing on the stroke of 12 with a fervent prayer for guidance in the year just dawning.

LARGE GAINS ARE SHOWN IN ANNUAL REPORTS MADE AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN

Sunday's Services

The Bible school attendance Sunday morning was the largest for two years except on one or two special occasions and the work started off very auspiciously. The morning church service was very largely attended, also. The sermon was on the topic "A New Year Resolution," which, the speaker said, was one that should be renewed every day in the year, namely, to live the Christ life, which is the only thing worth while in this world. The special musical number was a lovely duet by Mrs. Whiting and Mrs. Floyd Mercer. The subject of the evening sermon was "The First Christian Preachers in Court." It referred to the healing by Peter and John of the man at the Bautiful Gate of the Temple and their subsequent arrest and trial. Lessons were drawn from the boldness and resourcefulness of these two early preachers. Harry Marple contributed the special musical number, a beautiful solo.

FOLLOW A CRIMSON TRAIL

BALTIMORE—A woman's purse in a pool of blood near the street railway tracks in Fifteenth street, on the eastern outskirts of the city, and a crimson trail as if a body had been dragged twenty feet from the tracks, furnished a mystery today which the police are diligently striving to solve. Along this trail the police found other evidence which seemed to point to a murder, but so far no body has been found.

A slip of paper in the purse contained the address, "86 Continental building, Washington, D. C.," on one side. On the reverse side was written the name, "R. Terry, former civil service examiner." A card bearing the name "W. L. Reinert Clothing Company, 40 Gallia street," also was among the contents of the purse. There is no Gallia street in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hildreth, 217 Milford street, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert McJannett of Los Angeles New Year's eve. Mr. and Mrs. Hildreth spent New Year's day as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Holcomb of Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. M. Burton, 1217 Campbell street, accompanied by Mr. Walton, spent Christmas with relatives at Watsonville. They also stopped at San Luis Obispo and visited friends overnight. The party returned to this city in time to witness the parade at Pasadena New Year's day.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

FIVE THINGS TO MAKE FOR BETTER CONDITIONS TOLD BY REV. EDMONDS

The text of the Sunday morning sermon by Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian church was taken from Matthew 9:2: "Be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee." The following is a resume:

Sunshine is democratic. It goes to all alike. So is the gospel of Christ. None of us but need day by day the blessing of the Sun of Righteousness. This text has five rays of sunshine. Take them to start out the New Year.

First, the good cheer of forgiveness. Here was this poor palsied man brought. Jesus knew his first inner need for forgiveness of sin, and gave what was needed first, and then to certify His authority gave healing too. Nowadays the tendency is to minimize the sin question; but our greatest need is to hear, "My Son, Thy sins be forgiven Thee." There can be no good cheer when guilt hangs like a sword overhead. None of us are willing to go out into this year without this sin question settled. It is impossible but that some here will this year pass out into eternity.

Good cheer will come with the presence of Christ. The storm-driven and frightened disciples were met by their Lord walking across the waves and saying: "Be of good cheer: It is I." The presence of Christ brings good cheer in any storm. As we set out on this new and untried journey we may be certain of His continued presence: "Lo, I am with you all the days."

Flail That Beats Out Chaff

Again, the good cheer of victory. "In the world ye shall have tribulation; but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Jesus Christ is the Master of all the forces that swirl about us. The tribulations that come may mean just the flail that beats out the chaff. When we fully surrender to Christ He takes our battle in hand and gains victory for us.

This gospel gives us the good cheer of opportunity. Paul had been jeered by a mob in Jerusalem. But the Lord stood by him saying, "Be of good cheer; thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, and must bear witness also in Rome." This meant harder work yet ahead than he had done, that appealed to all the heroic in Paul. He was to face yet greater dangers and suffering in the opportunity of carrying the gospel on to Rome, the world's capital. John Bunyan said he had such joy in his dungeon that he could pray for a darker dungeon and deeper suffering. God give us grace to welcome all hardships in opportunity to witness for Him.

Good cheer comes to us through faith. Paul in storm and utter ship wreck was told by the angel of the Lord that his life and all with him should be saved, and they should be of good cheer. Paul believed it in spite of all circumstances. You have seen the sun go down out of sight into the ocean; but though you saw it fall into the ocean you did not believe it, for you accept the word of those who know the truth about it. So you have to take from one who knows, this word of good cheer. After Paul's wreck every man on board was found safe. So with every promise of God.

Both Owned and Possessed

The secret of Paul's good cheer. He was utterly abandoned to God, "Whose I am and whom I serve." He put God first. Regardless of what God may do, though he strip you, yet all will be for the best. Paul did not belong to God because he served Him, but served because he belonged to Him. He was both owned and possessed by God. You may own a thing but some one else be in possession of that thing and having the use of it. God owns us; sometimes the world possesses us. You are God's property; put God first. If you put 1 after 000 you get nothing; if you put 1 before 000 you get something. If you expect to amount to anything, put God first; if you do anything else, you do it at your peril. Life without Him is a ship without a rudder.

If God owns you, let Him have possession. Then every hour of this year will be filled with good cheer.

Give Dinner Dance

Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Boyer, 232 North Orange street, entertained with an 8 o'clock dinner and dance New Year's eve. The decorations carried out the holiday color scheme, poinsettias, red carnations and holly being used throughout the house. The dinner guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fowrl, Dr. and Mrs. Burdette Frary of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lockwood, and Mrs. Thomas H. Nelmes of Glendale.

MR. AND MRS. WOOD RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wood and son have returned from Oakland where they spent the holidays as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bradbury. The principal object of the visit was to attend the double wedding of the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury, which occurred on the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury. The return trip was made via the valley route and at Bakersfield Mr. Wood's brother, Harrie O. Wood, joined the party, and accompanied them back to Glendale.

WRITES TO KATIE

E. HALE OF GLENDALE TELLS OF SOME THINGS HE SAW AT ROSE TOURNAMENT

E. Hale, 329 North Howard street, Glendale, is an admirer of Ed. Etreeter's "Dere Mabel" letters which appear in a well known magazine from time to time. Mr. Hale attended the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena on New Year's Day with the result he promptly decided to write a "Dere Mabel" letter of his own. Instead of addressing it to "Mabel," he selected "Katie" as the one to be honored and this is what he wrote:

Glendale, Calif., Jan. 1, 1921.

Dere Katie—My letter to you today will be of the day's doings, as today was New Years. I got up this mornin' and the sun was shinin' bright and warm and it felt vigorous and inspirin'. After breakfast I started out for a hike to go somewhere and I went a couple blocks and I saw stacks of autos headin' east.

So just kinda magnetically I headed that way too. I had walked a little ways and then a soft-hearted feller asked me to ride.

Well its kinda risky to ride with strangers now days, but I didn't have much money so I took a chance.

There was autos to the front of us, autos to the rear of us and Fords rushin' past on both sides.

At last I asked the man where so many people was goin' and he said to the parade at Pasadena.

Well I hadn't heard nothin' about a circus being there today, so I kept still to hide my ignorance.

We trailed along over fertile hills, round corners and through pretty woodlands and at last we came to the big bridge like I sent you a postal card of and oh Katie—the autos was a sight. Comin' from all directions and all headin' east. I'll bet there was a million of 'em. More than a thousand anyway.

Well we went down the main st., only they call it Colorado st. and we got into the densist crowd of human bein's that I ever saw at once.

So I got out of the auto and I felt like I ought to pay the man somethin' for his good nature, but I decided a quarter would be insultin' and it wasn't worth 50c, so I split the difficulty and didn't offer him nothin'.

Well I wandered up the street through that awful mob so I could find a good place to see the parade.

Somebody had stretched a wire along the curbin' on both sides so as the parade would stay in its jurisdiction.

Anxious to See Big Show

I asked a man what time the big show started and he said at 2 o'clock at the Turn-'Em-Out park.

I ain't seen a circus in a long time but I didn't have much money, so I decided I wouldn't go to the show grounds.

Up in the air I saw a couple flying machines and one of those digiribles was showin' off.

They acted kinda' stuck up, like they was above other folks.

The streets were all decorated awful pretty, with flowers and palms and ferns and flags and a lot of banners was hung on the trolley wires that said Ohio on 'em.

I thought it was kinda funny they wasn't any banners from Kentucky or Iowa or even Wisconsin where I come from. Maybe Ohio was the home of the circus I thought.

But the crowds was somethin' fierce. I couldn't get near the gutter. I was packed in so tight, I couldn't even see the street pavement.

I thought maybe I could see better if I went a block or two east, but after I'd walked nine blocks, about all I could see was the sky. There was people on the roofs, up in trees and poles and standin' on boxes and stepladders. I met a little boy carrin' a couple cracker boxes and I asked him for one and he said, "All right, six bits." I only wanted one to stand on so as I could see the circus parade and I guess he thought I wanted to take it home with me. So I decided to stand on my feet cause I didn't have much money anyway.

Bands Play, People Joyous

Well at last the parade began to commence and I heard the bands playin' and people all laughin' and hollerin' and there I was pressed against a plate of glass with 411 pieces of humanity between me and the curbin'.

So I went around threw somebody's back yard and I hustled seven blocks further east in hopes of findin' a empty field and say Katie—the mobs was worse than before. The parade was comin' and there was me a actual six feet, one, in my new suit and I couldn't even see the faces on the other side of the street.

But I am full of agility and as I climbed up a pepper tree I swallowed my pride and my gum, both at once.

"Here they come." Say Katie, what a world of excitement and pentup suspense there is in them very words.

Well I was pleased to see the mayor of Los Angeles and his wife in a "beautiful floral production of a Venetian gondola" (I copied that from the newspaper, Katie.) If you know what it means—that is the way it looked.

Then came the band and the music was so inspirin' that I most forgot I was up a tree and pretty near lost my balance tryin' to keep step. All the actors in the parade wore bouquets and the autos was gorgeously trimmed.

There was another feller in my tree and I asked him whose circus it was and he looked at me kinda crazy and he said it wasn't a circus, but it was the Turn 'Em Out of Roses.

Well, I knew I'd made a slip, so I just laughed like it was a joke.

Then it come to me all of a sudden that Pasadena has doin's like this every New Years.

Then come the Glendale float—(my town, Katie) and a little girl was standin' in a garden of violets, carnations and palms and squirtin' the hose on 'em to keep 'em fresh till the parade was over.

It was awful pretty and though I hadn't seen the rest, I decided Glendale would win the Turn 'Em Out.

But I can't describe 'em all in retail, cause there was more as a hundred floats, I guess.

Some was made to look like boats, canoes, houses and arbors and sew forth.

All Nationalities Represented

Then there was Indians, Cowboys, Quakers, Mexicans, Japs and Chinamen. They wasn't all real though. Just make believe, like a show. There was fairies and angels and a lot of mermaids with their feet in sugar bags and they all wore pleasing smiles.

Then there was shephard girls with crooks (not Los Angeles crooks, Katie), crooks is a long crooked cane. Thense the name.

There was a lion on one float guarded by two girls, but he was stuffed with chlorform.

And there was cute ponies and ladies on horses and men prancin' around. It was a gala day Katie.

There was lots of bands and the Salvation Army got lots of applause and there was Abe Lincoln and the spirit of '61 (spirit, not spirits.)

The Chinese Junk was anything but that. It was supberb in its artistically designed architecure and radiant beauty of resignation. And they called it junk.

Then the Pacific fleet was camelflaged on a auto and old Glory waving in the breeze and everybody took off their hats (except women) and I was so full of enthuism that I took my hat off so quick that it slipped to the ground below and out of pure patriotism I was bareheaded for the rest of the parade.

Some of the floats was fixed up pretty with oranges that was brought up in Calif.

Risks Eyesight—Somewhat

There was one big barge that I didn't notice much. It was decorated with bathing girls in their swimmin' suits that never have and never will see water. They was laughin' and throwin' roses. I didn't pay much attention to 'em. They had fancy colored suits. One had on a pink cap and her suit was red and blue with yellow ribbons. She was all sunburned. I didn't see much of 'em. Another one saw me in my tree and she smiled right at me. She had a green suit and blue cap. She was a blond about 18. I didn't look at 'em anyway Katie. It was a great parade and lasted two hours.

I kept lookin' for the caliope, but they didn't have any and the finality was a auto full of policemen officers that were breakin' all speed limits, clangin' threw the crowd and I thot it was quite approriate that the ambulance came bringin' up the rear to pick up the dead.

Well after the parade I found out that the big show was to be a foot ball game at Turn 'Em Out Park between Ohio and Calif. which explained the cause of the parade. But I decided to go home, cause I didn't have much money any way.

So after a couple hours I got threw the crowd down to where I could get a bus for home and Glendale. And there I saw a football game true to life, with me chosen as the football as about 200 people that was mostly women and children made a mad center rush for a seat in that bus that could only 'comodate about twenty-five.

I hollered "women and children first," and it was real excitin' for the time bein'.

Well I got home on that bus in good shape, but it was awful slow, account of the autos and people that got in our way.

After I got home I heard that the Glendale float got 1st prize and if I'd been the judge I'd said the same thing. And Ohio didn't win the football game. Hope you can come next New Years to see Pasadena and Turn 'Em Out of Roses. I had a nice time and it didn't cost much, cause I didn't have much money anyway.

Yours sincerely,
E. HALE

GIVES ESTIMATES

J. MAC M'MILLAN WRITES ON PROPOSED OPENING OF COMMERCIAL STREET

Editor The Evening News—I feel moved to follow the example of my good friend Dr. Lusby and break into print in regard to this proposed Commercial street. I appreciate your fairness in giving both sides of the question a chance to place our views before the public.

There is very prevalent a grave misconception as to the cost of this improvement. The city manager estimates the net cost at $23,850 for OPENING the proposed street, but that does not pay for grading, curb, paving, sidewalks, lights, etc. I have interviewed contractors in the various lines and submit the lowest estimate offered for each item. The estimate for lights is based on the cost of past improvements. We have proposed a street from Broadway to San Fernando Road 120 feet by 2000 feet in round numbers, we may say:

6 acres at $2500 per acre	$ 15,000
Grading	500
4000 lin. ft. of curb at 65c ft.	2,600
100,000 sq. ft. concrete paving (50x2000) at 25c ft.	25,000
20,000 sq. ft. of walk at 22c	4,400
80,000 sq. ft oiled street	800
Lights, wires, etc.	10,000
Total	$ 58,300

This cut off saves 330 feet of travel.

Cutoff at Central Avenue

Also the Broadway to Broadway cutoff at Central avenue would cost for:

9 lots, including 1 brick store building, 3 bungalows, 1 cottage and 1 shack	$ 31,500
Paving, sidewalk and curb	7,000
Lights	2,200
Total	$ 40,700
Deduct offset of	$ 7,500
	$ 33,200
Add from above	$ 58,300
	$ 91,500
Deduct estimate of	$ 23,850
	$ 67,650

I do not pretend that this estimate is accurate. I merely want to show that after this street is opened some one will have to a pay a bill very much larger to improve the street. Who will it be?

Another point: The petition for this street is signed by 111 business men, the majority (and a man who knows most of them says three-fourths of whom do not own property in the assessment district). The owners of at least one-third of the frontage in the district have protested the opening of the street.

Is it fair for the few to override the will of the many? Is that democracy?

Very truly yours,
J. MAC MacMILLAN,
350 West Broadway.

ORGAN DEDICATION

THURSDAY NIGHT, JANUARY 18 IS DATE ANNOUNCED BY GLENDALE THEATRE

The evening of Tuesday, January 18, has finally been set for the dedication of the great organ in Glendale Theatre. The original plan was to give but one performance on this occasion, but mindful of the theatre opening in October last when so many Glendalians were disappointed it has been decided to give two complete performances, the first at 7 and the second at 9 o'clock, which hours in the future will be the regular commencement time instead of 6.45 and 8.45 as heretofore, this being the standard time adopted by motion picture theatres generally.

The dedicatory program will be announced later, and Manager Howe promises that it will be of an exceptional character and in keeping with the high standard he has set for the house.

Mme. Maud Moore Clement, the premier theatre organist of America, who has been engaged as first organist at the Glendale, will preside at the console, and a rare treat is assured. Vocal soloists of note will add to the program, and in addition the Robert Brunton picture, "The House of Whispers," featuring J. Warren Kerrigan and his own company, including Fritzi Brunette, will be a part.

Changes Are Announced

Commencing Wednesday, January 19, the regular daily matinee will be given at 2.30 o'clock, and beginning Sunday, January 23, and each Sunday thereafter, an organ recital will be held from 1:30 until 2:15 o'clock, immediately preceding the regular matinee, at which a varied program will be rendered consisting of sacred, classical, semi-classical, popular and "old-time" numbers. These recitals should become very popular as the admission will be but 5 cents above the regular matinee prices, and being set for this hour, they will in no way conflict with the time of service at the churches.

Also beginning with Tuesday, January 18, a new scale of prices will be in effect. The loge section will remain as before at 39 cents, while the center section will be 33 cents and front section 28 cents, all prices including war tax. At matinees all seats will be 28 cents and children under 12 years will be admitted at both matinee and evening performances for 17 cents as heretofore. The organ will play at matinees the same as in the evening, and the musical program for each day will be published one week in advance.

It is probable that more boys are ambitious to work in a garage than to become president.

PRIZES AWARDED

DR. HENRY R. HARROWER GIVES $500 IN CASH FOR BEST SERIES OF ARTICLES

Some months ago Dr. Henry R. Harrower offered several cash prizes to the medical profession amounting to $500 for a series of articles on various phases of the subject which interests him so much and which is the chief work of the Harrower laboratory.

Scores of physicians throughout the United States and several in Holland, France and England have contributed essays of varying degrees of merit and this week the prize money was divided. The first prize of $250 goes to Dr. Leigh F. Watson of Chicago. The second prize of $100 goes to Dr. G. L. Rohdenburg of New York City. The third prize of $75 goes to Dr. F. J. Farrell of Providence, R. I. The fourth prize of $50 goes to Dr. Hyman Goldstein of New York City and the fifth prize of $25 to Dr. J. Marion Read of San Francisco.

The judges in the contest were Dr. E. B. Teuter of Chicago, Dr. James C. Wilson of Philadelphia, and Dr. H. R. Harrower of Glendale.

This ends a very interesting and undoubtedly advantageous contest and we understand that Dr. Harrower is to publish these essays in book form very shortly.

CHURCH BUILDING

ARTHUR G. LINDLEY OF THIS CITY COMPLETES PLANS TO BUILD AT REEDLEY

Arthur G. Lindley of Glendale has completed plans and is taking bids for the erection of a frame and plaster church building at Reedley for the First Methodist church of that place. The contract for the concrete foundation has been let to J. Friesen of Reedley. The church auditorium will seat 800 people, there will be graded Sunday school departments, banquet and social rooms; cement plastered exterior, shingle roof, pine trim, art glass windows, heating and ventilating system, wiring. Cost about $40,000.

Generous to Church

Members of the Church of the Holy Family are loyal and generous to their church, as is evidenced by the announcement by their pastor, Reverend Father James S. O'Neill, that the Christmas collection amounted to $1190.

Father O'Neill thanked them warmly last Sunday and commended their zeal for the work of the building of the new church, soon to be begun at the corner of Louise street and Lomita avenue.

Final returns from the recent bazaar held by the ladies of the church show that the net proceeds reached the gratifying sum of $3000.

ORANGE PICKERS

PARTY STOPS IN GLENDALE ON AUTO TOUR; LEMON PRICES DROP, IS REPORTED

Two automobile loads of orange pickers arrived in Glendale Thursday ready to start picking and packing the winter crop. The families are friends of Police Chief John Lampert and from him gained permission to pitch their tents and unload their equipment preparatory to encamping on the lot at the rear of the city hall.

The newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Arquette, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walcot and family and Mr and Mrs. J. C. Swart and daughter, Mabel The families left Tacoma, Wash., early in August picking peaches and prunes in the early fall and working their way south by picking grapes in Lodi and oranges in Lindsay. They expect to return to Lindsay later when the valencias are ripe.

Lemon Crop Not Picked

Prior to coming to Glendale they journeyed to San Bernardino, expecting to help harvest the lemon crop. They report that there is practically no lemons being picked in San Bernardino, as the market price is too low to pay the ranchers to harvest them. Lemons are being sold by hucksters on the streets two dozen for 5 cents, they say.

The pickers carry all their equipment with them which includes a tent, cooking stove, beds and bedding, etc. One family in a one-seated Chevrolet carried with them two beds, a dresser, a cooking stove and several boxes of cooking utensils and clothing, all compactly arranged to fit onto the rear of the machine.

HIT IN FACE

GLENDALE RESIDENT INFORMS POLICE OF ATTACK AND FEAR OF ROBBERY

Receiving a blow in the face when he attempted to enter his home, 715 North Louise, Antonio Ortiz summoned the police Thursday night, stating that his house was being robbed. Captain McGuire and Officers Wells and Blix responded, but although a thorough search of the premises was made, no robbers were found.

Mr. Ortiz described the man who struck him as being five feet six inches tall and wearing a dark suit.

STORE INCREASING

H. S. WEBB CO. GETS MORE SPACE; F. B. WALTON IN NEW DEPARTMENT

In line with the wonderfully rapid growth of Glendale is the forward step of the H. S. Webb company, 103 South Brand boulevard, in securing the lease on the store room next door, 105 South Brand boulevard, for the establishment of an up-to-date men's haberdashery.

This will give the men a Webb store of their own and obviate the necessity of their entering the dry goods store at all, since it has its own entrance—a circumstance that will be appreciated by many men who dislike shopping in a dry goods store, or ladies' wear store.

F. B. Walton, formerly of Silverwood's, Los Angeles, and highly recommended by that firm as a young man who understands men's furnishing goods, will have charge of the new department. The new addition will probably be taken over by Mr. Webb the last of January or the first of February.

An arch will be cut in the wall between the dry goods store and the men's furnishing store. This makes the Webb establishment a department store. This addition was made necessary by the growth of the Webb Company's business.

Other Improvements Made

Another improvement demanded by the growth of the business was the installation recently by Mr. Webb of two of the newest, down-to-the-minute National Cash registers, handsome cabinet affairs in dark mahogany finish. The machine seems seems almost a magical affair, for it prints a receipt for the customer, adds up the items of his bill, totals each clerk's sales and, in short, keeps a complete record of every transaction. These new registers are the most up-to-date business device in Glendale.

The addition of this new store space gives Mr. Webb a frontage of about one hundred feet on Brand boulevard; the frontage on Broadway is about 175 feet.

LOCAL BOY POETS

WRITE POEM TOGETHER AND PICK ON FORMER KAISER FOR THEIR TOPIC

John Laver, aged 10, and George Butterly, aged 12, Glendale boys, have burst into poetry. They have combined their efforts, picked on the former ruler of Germany and put forth eight lines under the title "The Kick the Kaiser Got." Here is the "kick:"

He got a kick from Belgium,
He got a kick from France.
He got a kick from England
And then was his only chance.
He got a kick from the U. S. A.
That made him feel kinda blue
And made him paint his darn old flag
With true Red, White and Blue.

The budding poets are proud of their combined effort and it was sent to The Evening News for publication, probably in the hope that it might, in time, drift back to where the former emperor is in exile and meet his eye.

AUTOS COLLIDE

TWO CARS MAKE ATTEMPT TO ENTER GARAGE AT SAME TIME; THEY CRASH

The right front arm of the bumper was broken and an end smashed on the automobile belonging to Mrs. Cahoon of 681 West Colorado boulevard, Pasadena, Friday, when it collided with one driven by Herbert H. Aldrich, 826 Orange Grove avenue, Glendale.

The accident occurred when both cars attempted to enter the Overland garage at the same time. Mrs. Cahoon reported the matter to the Glendale police.

HOBO WARFARE IS AVERTED

TOLEDO — War clouds which hung over the camps of two rival hobo organizations were dispelled when J. Eads How, founder of the International Brotherhood Welfare association and Gus Gramer, grand dictator of the Social Order of Hoboes, shook hands and agreed "to work in harmony for the good of all hoboes in general."

How announced, as the result of his convention here, the brotherhood had obtained a nine-room house which has been converted into a "home for hoboes," to be used also as an "employment bureau."

The convention came to a close after sessions covering a period of two weeks. The two factions clashed early in the convention. Dictator Gramer asserting that How's organization was "usurping the rights of the regular hoboes."

ELKS GIVE DANCE

ABOUT 125 COUPLES PRESENT AT NEW YEAR'S EVE BALL OF GLENDALE LODGE

About 125 couples enjoyed the New Year's eve dance given by the Elks at the clubhouse on Colorado street. The hall was beautifully decorated with red and green festoons and crepe paper pom poms, over which was draped tinsel which gave a very realistic appearance of icicles. Palms and ferns completed the decorations. Splendid dance music was furnished and a buffet luncheon served at midnight.
